"Hark! There is dawning another blue day.
Think! Would's't thou let it slip useless away?"

"Parting is such sweet sorrow
That I shall say good night till it be morrow."

Clinton Place Junior High School

*This school is dedicated to the development of the youth who attend here, that they may grow in knowledge and understanding
. . . that they may build a better nation in a better world.*

FOREWORD

The junior high school offers many avenues for exploration in the field of education. At this level young people have the wonderful opportunity of finding where their chief interests lie and of developing their talents in these areas.

At Clinton Place we have found great joy in the broad program offered by the department of music. Here boys and girls have developed skills and expressed themselves in creative work which has brought delight not only to themselves but to the entire student body, to the faculty and to their parents. To quote the immortal bard,

"The man that hath no music in himself,
Nor is not mov'd with concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils."

WE, the class of 1965 wish to dedicate our yearbook, Explorer VIII to the members of the music department, Mr. Gabriel Nevola, Mr. John Musky, Mr. Eugene Selesner, Miss Virginia Holmes and Mr. Hyman Dales.

In a small way we wish to show our recognition of the wonderful and inspired work of our talented music directors. We wish to express to you our sincere appreciation for your dedicated work, your sustained interest and motivation on our behalf in the field of music. We wish to say "Never have so few done so much for so many" developing our talents and bringing us joy through the "sound of music."

DEDICATION

A black and white photograph of a desk. In the background, a large, thick book is open, showing many pages. In the foreground, a pair of glasses and a ruler are visible on the desk surface. The word "ADMINISTRATION" is printed in a large, serif font across the bottom right of the image.

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Graduates:

Three years ago you entered Clinton Place Junior High School as a new class of seventh graders. You were beginning the first phase of your secondary education. Your teachers and school administrators have sought to guide you and counsel you. Your parents have assisted you and given you encouragement along the way. Your teachers and parents are proud of your achievements. You have earned the diploma you received and you are ready for senior high school.

You need your senior high school education. Your adult world holds many opportunities for you. These opportunities you may grasp only if you are ready for them. What do you need to be ready? You need good training which the school can give you. You need to develop an adult sense of pride and dignity and self respect. You need a strong desire to accept the challenges which your adult world has to offer you.

I am certain that with a great deal of hard work you will be able to accept responsibility to help build a better nation and a better world. I sincerely wish happiness and success to each of you.

THE FUTURE IS YOURS - USE IT WISELY!

Sincerely,

ALEXANDRA S. D'ALESSANDRO
PRINCIPAL

GO FORWARD CONFIDENTLY

Congratulations on your accomplishment--a junior high school diploma. Your parents and your teachers know that a Clinton Place diploma has to be earned by hard work. You have been led and pushed, preached at and scolded, encouraged by praise and prodded by punishment, but you made it finally because you met the standards.

I wonder if you also acquired the will to learn, the urgent need to be adequately prepared to meet the challenges of modern living? Will you complete your training in high school, trade school, college?

You have had the opportunity to explore your strengths and weaknesses and to develop the basic skills as a foundation for future growth. Therefore, go forward with confidence to the next challenge, a high school diploma.

Sincerely,

ANTHONY COPPOLA

STUDENT'S CODE

I am a young teenager embarking upon adulthood. In order to achieve maturity, I must fulfill my duty to my parents, teachers, friends, and to myself as an individual.

I must

1. Dress appropriately, follow the rules of good posture, speech, and manners.
2. Respect all races and religions so that brotherhood and good will can be shared by all people.
3. Appreciate the value of public and private property in order to maintain the high standards of my school and community.
4. Practice the principles of democracy and the rules of my school because they are beneficial to me and my fellow classmates.

I will try to uphold with dignity and pride, the ideals and rules of my school and this code at all times.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

June 1965

We, the class of June 1965, having completed our three-year term at Clinton Place Junior High School, do hereby draw up this, our last will and testament leaving all our worthy goods, tangible and intangible as they may be, as follows:

Mrs. D'Alessandro

- Our deepest appreciation for your dedicated interest in the class of '65.
- Our thanks for all your help and supervision.
- A larger 110.
- For next year an inspired yearbook staff.
- A large book of poetry.
- A round-trip to Paris via Air France.
- A fully prepared class for once.
- A non-breakable pointer.
- A life-time supply of ouchless bandaids.
- A successful basketball team.
- Her own private Leonard Bernstein record.
- An indestructable baton.
- For once a busy shop class.
- A gold-plated "Sorry All Full" sign.
- A clean blackboard every day.
- A busy study hall.
- His own chair in the teacher's lounge.
- A working microphone.
- Files and files of high "I. Q's."
- A piggy-bank for fines.
- A class of Grade A students.
- An unlimited supply of pencils and erasers.
- A silent sixth period cafeteria.
- A long playing Miles Davis album.
- A punctual homeroom for once.
- A non-gum chewing class.
- A lifetime supply of fire extinguishers for his experiments.

and

To the class of 1966, we leave our high standards. We hope that with perseverance, effort and courage, in time, they may prove worthy to follow our patterns and achieve our goals.

ALMA MATER

Nestled in Newark on a busy street,
Stands a school that can't be beat.
Clinton Place the name rings loud
Among the students who are so proud.

Chorus

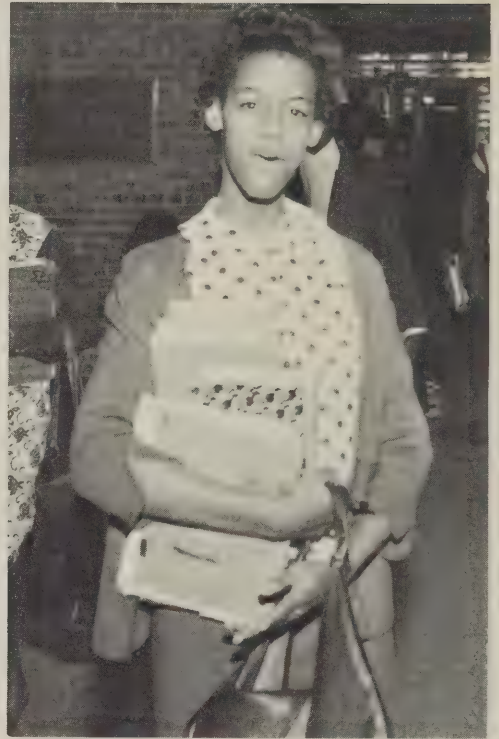

Clinton Place Oh Clinton Place,
Your banners raised on high,
We sing to you a song of praise;
Your name will never die.

2

Beautiful things all make our school,
One huge diamond a precious jewel.
We're thankful for this place to learn
For in our hearts great pride will burn.

... SO WELL REMEMBERED
